- (a) United States dollar deposits at one or more FDIC-insured depositories not affiliated with the foreign bank and with a primary or branch office located in Georgia, provided that in any case where the deposited amounts exceed or may exceed the then applicable limits of FDIC insurance (as aggregated in accordance with FDIC rules), the depository has an adequate capacity to meet financial commitments for the uninsured deposit exposure. A depository has an adequate capacity to meet financial commitments if the risk of failure of the depository is low and the full and timely repayment of deposit principal and interest is expected. The foreign bank must analyze, support and document (in English) the adequate capacity of a depository as required by this paragraph and make that documentation available for review by the Department;

- (c) Except as otherwise provided in these rules, calculation of liabilities of Georgia state branches and Georgia state agencies shall be in accordance with the instructions in the FFIEC 002 Report of Assets and Liabilities of U.S. Branches and Agencies of Foreign Banks (call report). The calculation of pledged assets shall be on the same basis on which quarterly averages are calculated for call report purposes (for example, based on current requirements, the average of liabilities subject to the pledged asset requirements as of the close of business on the weekdays during the previous month as specified by the FFIEC 002 instructions). The value of the amount of the pledged assets, calculated in accordance with the requirements of these rules, must equal the required value under these rules by the close of business on the fifth business day immediately following the end of the monthly period for which the calculation is made.
- (4) Additional Pledged Asset conditions and limitations. The amount of pledged assets under O.C.G.A. § 7-1-1123 shall be subject to: (i) the conditions and limitations as the Department may consider to be necessary or desirable for the maintenance of a sound financial condition; (ii) the protection of depositors, creditors, and the public interest in this state; and (iii) the support of public confidence in the business of the Georgia state branch or Georgia state agency. The Department may expressly disallow one or more otherwise eligible pledged asset, either for all institutions or for specific institutions. All pledged assets shall be subject to any additional conditions or limitations as determined by the Department with respect to such assets. The balance of any other pledged asset or pledged asset category disallowed at the preceding examination or by direction of the Department for any other reason shall be ineligible for use as a pledged asset until the underlying reasons for the disallowance have been removed, and the Department has confirmed in writing that the pledged asset is no longer disallowed.
 - (c) All amounts due from the home office, other offices and affiliates of the foreign bank, including income accrued but uncollected on such amounts, shall be ineligible for use as a pledged asset, except that upon a letter application to the Department and the Department's prior written approval, all amounts due from other offices located within the United States shall be considered eligible for use as a pledged asset.
- (5) Security agreement; segregation; minimum value; liens. All pledged assets shall be maintained pursuant to a written tri-party security agreement prescribed by the Department and entered into among the Georgia state branch or Georgia state agency, the Department, and the approved depository. Without limiting this subsection (5), a foreign bank shall require the approved depository to segregate on its books and records the pledged assets held by the approved depository as custodian, and for such custody account to reflect the security interest in the custodied pledged assets for the benefit of the Department. Without further limiting this subsection (5), pledged assets that consist of deposit obligations of the approved depository shall be in deposit accounts titled to reflect the security interest of the Department, which deposit accounts shall be subject to and governed by a written security agreement meeting the requirements of this subsection (5). - (8) Liabilities requiring cover; excluded liabilities.

Liabilities requiring cover under these rules shall include all liabilities of a foreign bank appearing in the books, accounts and records of its Georgia state branches and Georgia state agencies as liabilities of such agency, agencies, branch or branches, including acceptances and such other liabilities (including contingent liabilities) as the Department shall determine, but excluding the following:

- (10) Valuation of Pledged Assets. The non-deposit obligations referred to in this Rule and custodied with an approved depository must be valued at the then amortized cost amount or the then current fair value, whichever is lower. FDIC-insured deposit obligations must be valued at the principal amount plus accrued but unpaid interest.
